

Arts Day 2022

On Friday, 28th October, West Byford are celebrating ARTS DAY! There will be an array of different fun-packed art activities and stations such as face painting, painting, still life drawing, colour the teacher plus much more for students in Pre-Primary to Year Six during an extended lunch break.

If you would like to assist in some of the activities such as preparing, cleaning, participating and/or supervising, please contact me by emailing rebecca.larkin@education.wa.edu.au.

Important information:

When: Friday, 28th October (Week 3)

Time: 1.15pm – 1.55pm

What to bring: A gold coin and your best Arty outfit (Best dressed gets a prize per class!)

Why:

- To bring the school community together
- Appreciate the Visual Arts
- Have some 'arty fun' in the sun
- In previous years, we have donated to the Perth Children's Hospital Foundation; 'Fun on Four' sector, the School's and the Visual Art program. This year we will be fundraising for 'The Smith Family', helping children in need, creating better futures through long-term support for their education. More information can be found at About Us | Australian Children's Charity \(thesmithfamily.com.au\)

If you have any questions, please don't hesitate to ask.

Kind regards
