

Laugh, Play & Create

Learn some jokes to tell your friends!

Games are great examples of artefacts which tell us about how people enjoyed their leisure time together.

10

Look at the game board from 1911. Make up your own rules for how you think it should be played. Play it with a friend and talk about what it tells us about the past.

