

Counting On with Number Charts (a)

Use the number chart to count on.

Example:

$3+2=$

Shade in the next two numbers.

$3 + 2 = 5$

Now it's your turn!

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

$4+3=$

1	2	3	4	5
6	7	8	9	10

$5+2=$

Chance part 1

Lesson 82 • Worksheet 1

Will, won't, might

Name _____

Write will, won't or might happen for each picture.

Name: _____

Date: _____

or

Complete the 'or' words, and then draw a line connecting the word with the correct picture.

Draw a fork and the food you could eat with it.

• c _ _ _ n

• anch _ _ _

• st _ _ _ m

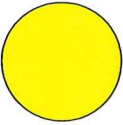

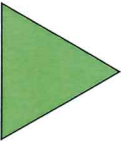

• t _ _ _ nado

• t _ _ _ ch

Term 1 Week 10 – Phase 3 (Focus GPC's – or, ur)

Focus sounds – u, e	Focus sounds – or, ur	Focus sounds – or, ur	Focus sounds – or, ur	Focus sounds – or, ur
up	for	fork	morning	transport
	fork	torn	sport	enormous
	born	born	storm	explore
get	torn	corn	order	organise
	sort	sport	corner	ornament
	fur	burn	church	burglar
ten	burn	turn	purple	burgundy
	turn	hurt	return	occur
	net	surf	Thursday	further
run	burp	curl	turtle	turquoise hurt
He can get up and run.	It will hurt to burn my leg.	It is my turn to surf for sport.	The turtle will return Thursday morning.	I will explore the transport before I go further.

To stay healthy...

eat lots of fruit.

To stay healthy...

eat vegetables.

To stay healthy...

exercise.

To stay healthy...

brush your teeth twice a day.

To stay healthy...

walk to school.

To stay healthy...

wash your hands before eating.

To stay healthy...

drink lots of water.

To stay healthy...

wash your face.

To stay healthy...

keep yourself clean.

To stay healthy...

get plenty of sleep.